Love Bites Angie Fox

The latest short story from Angie Fox.

Vampire Princess Katarina Volholme D'Transylvania didn't kill her stony, passionless husband, but she's not shedding too many tears, either. That is until her father arranges another marriage for her three days after the funeral. She's tired of being used, ignored and married off. And so she runs...

Royal Bodyguard Fionnlagh MacLaomainn doesn't know much about the maverick princess on the lamb. He just needs to bring her back in time for the wedding. But when he manages to capture her on the back of his Harley, their wild ride takes them to places neither one of them could have ever imagined.

But will a night of forbidden passion be enough to kindle true love?

Love Bites - Angie Fox

Princess Katarina Volholme D'Transylvania or 'Kat' to her family, belonged to one of the oldest vampire families in Romania.

Royal Bodyguard Fionnlagh MacLaomainn, 'Finn' to those who knew him specialised in giving vampires exactly what they crave.

When Kat decides she has had enough of her families tradition and enters a dating show she is excited to be matched with Finn. Pity though because Kat may be looking for a fun time but unfortunately Finn isn't who or what he seems and nor is he there for the reasons she thinks.

This is a short story but a very well written and one I think many people will enjoy.

A new turn on vampire stories. It was a romance but it was not the main thread of the story. I read the book in one sitting, I was so involved. Truly enjoyed the book.

I would like to read more about these two characters

Really short and kinda cheesy. Vampire's on a dating show just didn't work for me.

4.5 roundup

Old traditions is the one things she just can't tolerate anymore, time for changes. Tired and angry she does something drastic and ends up where she began...doomed. How she'll get out of it, well the plan is in the making. While she's making plans someone else is changing them and drastically.

New take on a vampire story and I have to say it was fun and exciting to read. Well written, great characters. I received a complimentary copy from an online site promoting the book. Glad I picked up up and will be looking for other books by this author.

A funny vampire love story. Katarina Volholme D'Transylvania, better known as Kat, is a vampire widow who has spent the last 1,800 years doing what her father told her, then what her husband demanded of her. She decides to take her life and happiness into her own hands when her father tries to immediately marry her off again. She dresses in thoroughly modern clothes and goes on the Vampire dating game called Love Bites. she has the choice of 3 vampires. Little does she know that one of them is really a fey empath and can appear to be a vampire.

Kat chooses vamp 3 Fionnlagh MacLaomainn the motorcycle riding Scotsman.

They are supposed to go to the airport, but Finn has other ideas. He takes her to an abandoned church and tells her he is really a fey empath her father hired to get her to her wedding on time. They were to wait for her father and her fiance at the church for a hand off. Kat is so mad she tries to glamour him and get him to take off his clothes and instead starts taking off her own. Finn thinks it is hilarious, but at the same time he is lusting after her as much as she him. She wants to know what a Scot wears under his kilt, and while they are getting naked, she shreds his bike shorts. Finn tells her when he is riding a motorcycle it is the only way to comfort his junk.

They do the wild thing and Finn checks his phone and her father is hours late.

Kat is forced into a long green gown, the clothes she has worn her whole life and they head to her family castle, Finn knowing something is wrong. He sneaks Kat in a secret way he built for her father right after she married, nearly 900 years ago. He forces Kat to stay in place with a glamour and says he will release her after he goes, and if it nears sunrise to go aground.

Will Kat meet the sunrise, be captured by whoever is after her family, or break the spell and run off with Finn's Harley?
