Love Is Carolyn Brown

Amanda Creole Hawk has been in a terrible automobile accident which has left her sightless for six weeks. After she goes through five caretakers in as many days, her father hires a Mr. Parker to take care of her and tells her that he will be the last. The sparks fly between Creole and Mr. Parker from the first minute they're in each other's company. During the five weeks they spend together, both of their hearts fail to get the message that they have been determined not to like each other.

Then, Mr. Parker disappears on the very day that Creole gets her bandages removed and she finds her heart has been broken. But John Rollin Parker grew up with the headstrong Creole and he knows that she could never care about him, especially if Creole ever found out who he really was. Will he ever give in to his own heart and let her know?

Lauretta says

Sweet romance. Typical story arc: two people who think they hate each other are actually perfect together and get married to live happy ever after. Great for when you just want something pleasant and soothing to read.

Stacey says

Beautiful Story

This book was wonderful. Carolyn Brown takes the art of storytelling and weaves a wonderful journey for her readers. These are the kinds of characters who will stick with you long after the last page is turned. Parker and Creole have an epic romance. I even love man's best friends perspective.

Sue Moss says

Good short read ,predictable but enjoyable .

Betty Hansford says

GRRREEAATTT!!!

Every Carolyn Brown book I've read has become an instant favorite. Ms. Brown has such a good touch with human emotions, that I can easily feel what her characters are feeling. I highly recommend this writer!

Kenneth Richardson says

Good clean romance

This book is clearly one of the several of the best of the many of the romance books I have read. It had many twists and turns.

Lori says

Beautiful story

Heart warming gut wrenching story. This book was a very easy read for me. It's a story of love and how two people destined to hate each other were also destined to love each other. Another great story by Carolyn Brown.

Dianne Watkins says

Warm hearted magic

A lovely feel good evening of pure enjoyment. Carolyn Brown at her best. Loved the way she weaved her tail of Love through the conflict of healing new and old wounds.

Kendall L. Mann says

Creole is blinded temporarily in an accident, which doesn't improve her spoiled, petulant personality.

At least not through the first four caregivers. Her Dad finally gives up and hired Parker, a long time family friend, that she has always abhorred. He puts up with no nonsense, but are the sparks going to fly when she figures out who took care of her.

Virginia M. Musser says

I love e

Love the way Carolyn Brown writes with enough humor and typical Oklahoma traits and always a happy ending. I was born and raised in Oklahoma so I love her books and wish she would write more

Jeanne Abbott says

A love story, pure and simple.

A straight forward love story with no plot twists to agonize over. Clean and wholesome. And full of family ties and heritage.

Susan Fabbre says

It was cute.

It was an easy read. I read it in one sitting. I did think the ending was obvious but then it was a romance not a mystery.

Shelia Chambers saysVery sweet book

I read this book in one evening. I couldn't put it down even knowing how it would end. anyone who enjoys a sweet romantic story will like this book.

Sarah says

The first romance book that I ever read, and to this day 12 years later, one of my favorite books of all time, no matter hwo many times I read it, I never get bored with this story and the characters.

Joe Park saysA Good Love Story

People are so oblivious to life. Thank goodness their hearts know what is best. Glad the author had the story end right. Instead of some ridiculous new world way.. A good story.

Connie S. Koog saysLove Is!

This is a sweet love story. I was impressed with the way it was written. Carolyn can make the storyline come to life on the page.
