Dream Catcher D. Jeremy Doraido

David is only nine when Dad drowns on the last day of vacation. Haunted by what he witnessed, he thinks life can't get any worse. That is until Mom marries Mr. Fulton, Dad's business partner, a much older man. To escape the beatings and verbal abuse, David runs away for the sixth time. He is placed in foster care at the age of almost thirteen, until the Court can find out whom to blame. For a boy that has been accused of lying and stealing, no one will believe what he heard Mr. Fulton saying on the phone about his business dealings. DREAM CATCHER is a Christian novel that won second place with the West Virginia Writers Inc.
