CHIVALRY LIVES IN THE SULTRY SOUTH!

LANCELOT OF THE PINES

Mandy can take care of herself; she doesn't need a deputy to do it for her. Lance is determined to keep her safe. Thrown together on the run, can they survive bullets and betrayals--and their forbidden attraction?

GALAHAD IN JEANS

Carla is assigned the irksome job of writing the profile for her magazine's Perfect Southern Gentleman. Beau wants no part of it. Reluctant editor or reluctant gentleman--who'll win this contest of wills and hearts?

CHRISTMAS KNIGHT

When a dispute over a Christmas tree lands Jake Benedict flat on his back, the nurse he quarreled with renders first aid. He and Donna have a fiery past, brief as it was. Is it possible they also have a future?

Donna Evetts says

Loved these books!!

I love a good cajun romance! And the idea of linking books and stories together in a community just does my heart happy. Thank you Jennifer!

Mary Ann says

A pleasant read that sets a theme of thinking of others before putting self first and one that we needs to see more of. This addresses the novella named Christmas Knight, but also turns up in the first two novels of the collection.

Marlene says

Worth reading...4 stars!

Three novellas that I enjoyed. The first story : Lance and Mandy's had a bit of mystery, suspense and drama. The second story is cute and sweet. I love Beau.

Cynthia says

The Knights

This is a wonderful collection of 3 stories of the Knights. They do good four the community but they also fall in love with strong women.
