Kennedy:

Apparently I had been naive the entire time that I was with King. Who knew that he had been keeping such a secret from me? Just my luck, as I hid from him to gather my thoughts and deal with the pain, yet another crushing blow to my happiness was revealed. I then realized that I could no longer live for King; it was time to live for Kennedy. Little did I know, Jada was suffering the same heartbreak that I was. Dolla had torn her heart into two. My girl was miserable, but she didn't run as I did; she was trying her best to inflict the same pain on Dolla as he had on her. Meanwhile, King, Meech and Dolla were constructing a plan to permanently get rid of the squad's enemies. But will it work? Will the squad make it through this storm of deception and lies to continue ruling the streets of Chi?

Some secrets should never be kept and some secrets should never be told because, either way, we were all about to suffer the consequences of secrets both revealed and untold.

Mia Morgan says

Finally

It was good, but it dragged some. I don't know why it takes so long for secrets to come out. I guess it was a way to prolong the book. Kennedy should have not ran and she should have talked with King. I'm happy for Meech. Jada and Dolla I'm glad they can be civil with each other, cos Dolla was all kinds of wrong. I'm glad they all found they happy

Imma Booker says

I didn't particularly like the ending of this series but for the most part, everyone got what they deserved

Monique Spicer says

Damn!

Well I'm happy that Siren got what she had coming to her because jealousy is something else it will cause your own demise. Now Kennedy I understand where she was coming from to a point but she became nerve wrecking with her issue. Now Meech I'm totally happy for he deserved to be happy. Dolla had a lot of nerve to do Jada the way he did and I just feel bad for Jada. Overall this was a good read and I was not disappointed.

This story had me glued all day. King and Dollar put Jada and Kennedy through so many emotions you just didn't know what was about to happen. I was glad to see that they both held on strong and didn't crack at the first apology. As far as Siren goes she knew that her shenanigans and ultimate betrayal would get her on the outside with the crew. When Meech said he was done he meant it. This whole story was too good really didn't it want it to in. I like how Jessica made amends with Kennedy and King.

Ladii Zig says

I can say reading this final chapter was very interesting. The women were so hurt and disgusted with the men you would have thought all of the relationships wouldn't have lasted. It's good to see King and Kennedy workout because she had me scared for a minute especially almost dealing with Glen. I was really upset how Dolla treated Jada after she did what she did and got kidnapped, they always say a man can dish it out but can't take it, but it's also good to see that they could co-parent. Overall this was a good read, great job Jessica

Tonya-Review

Jada was taking things too far. Wishing death on the twins. They didn't have anything to do with it. Dolls knew he cheated. I stop liking Jada by stabbing him didn't solved anything. Kennedy went running g she was falling for Glen. Yes king were wrong for not telling Kennedy, and Meech about him Siren. He didn't know about that Elijah were his. She was acting like a b. Jada slept with Marcus to get back at Dolls. Marcus working with Siren. But it all back fired. The Detective and Siren working together. Brooklyn didn't snitch. In the End things work for everyone

Venessia says

Kennedy, King, Meech, Dolla, and Siren are all back once again for the last book in the series. Kennedy is still reeling from the after effects of finding just how long the lie about Siren and King had been hidden, and even more floored when she finds out the true extent of Siren's shiestiness. Tired of being a Queen to a man that has been reduced from a King to a peasant in her eyes, Kennedy leaves to gather herself and her thoughts. But will she stay gone? After Jada comes face to face with the twins that Dolla has been hiding and realizing her woman's intuition wasn't wrong....she finally for once says F Dolla and does her...literally.....but little does she know the man that she finally let's in will want WAY more than a night of banging sex. Siren is thinking no one knows her secrets and she is working on getting her family back...meanwhile the family is working on getting her out of all of their lives for GOOD. This ending was so good and Jessica wrapped up all of the loose ends in a neat little now. THIS is how you do a series. If you don't read another series you gotta read this one!

Tisha Andrews says

Banging Series !!!!

There has to be a spin off. Jada and Dolla must have their moment where we see inside his head and heart and come back swinging for his girl. Jada was loyal to everyone. She played her position and life knocked her down. She deserves the man who help build her heart. Meech was a straight stand up dude who should have never entertained the likes of Siren. If anyone deserves to be happy, it's him with London. King was the depiction of a gentleman when it came to Kennedy. He owned his wrongdoings and patiently gave her space. Is Glen going to stay away quietly? Did Dre just vanish? Let's see if a spin off give of more of these banging characters.

Nette Fields says

Everybody hurt

This last chapter of these characters live was so sad. The women so angry, hurt, fed up and the men remorseful, sad, aplogic

King the mistake of the past costing him three years without the love if his life and his almost his empire. But he did not no the choices he made year ago should come back like that.

Kennedy was irking me, yes he didn't tell but he didn't know and it was b4 her.

Now I felt so bad for Jada u could feel her hurt and angry and rightfully so. Time hurt all wounds...

That damn Dolls was a mess, wasn't feeling him and he still would never know the extant if how much Jada lobed, cared, and sacrificed for him. His acting for her kidnap yea I could have killed him.

Glad Meechi found his One cus Siren was a whole trifling mess.

That b* Karma came back around on that a.

Love the ending

Couldn't get wit the drink well pregnant

Elle1986 says

Well what a load of unexpected events.... so let me quickly jump in so I can go to bed :)

Jada- She did exactly what I was hoping she did... and set.it.off... HOWEVER she went left like a hard left and left me like um wait no no that wasn't apart of the plan in my head. I wanted her to so badly give me my quick Angela Basset in waiting to exhale moment and then give me something fierce and classy in return... I think I was hoping for whoop your a and show you how freaking fab I can be without you... I got the first part... the second not so much. It was so much hurt (which I understood) that she just couldn't give me anything more then.. anger pure unfiltered anger.

Dolla- This guy... can we talk a second and talk about double freaking standards. He made my stomach hurt. and although I wished him nothing but pure pain with a huge helping of begging. I was still rooting for this guy, that he could fix this.. somehow... he failed me completely. After his actions I honestly gave zero f* about his character.

Kennedy-LOL this chick I completely understood where she was coming from... and I get 100% her position.. BUT at the same time I am thinking... yeah you did them 3 years but.. you also did that willingly.. YES you are a "ride or die chick" (Which I should add quickly as hell I AM NOT lol) but you did in fact have a choice period. You made the decision... now if at the end of the day she felt if I would known then what I know now and her choice would have been different.. I could understand her feelings completely, but just based on her being so young and so far up kings crack.. I don't think for one second she would have done anything different. So I get the upset I do ish was dirty.. really dirty and I probably would have went the hell off as well...but when I thought she made a certain decision based on anger and hurt... yeah I was about to quickly write her ass off... yet she pull through. She annoyed the piss out of me but it is what it is. I guess what I couldn't understand was how she could be so balls deep in love and then just cut those feelings... strange for a moment.

King- Sigh.. I guess it pays to tell all the truth. I was truly worried but you know I was completely okay with either outcome... stay together or not it was okay with me.... and I refuse to tell what choice was made hehe
READ THE BOOK!

Meech - OKAY truth moment.. I didn't really care about meeche character... like at all he was just apart of the story line. I didn't get invested with this guy at all. I didn't care much about London either..sorry I just wasn't invested in him.. good guy but yeah well that's about it.

Last but not least... Siren... well all is fair in love and war... insert evil laugh

So there you have it folks.... enjoy! (Yeah I said this review was going to be quick until my mind started working overtime as I typed... my bad!)

SN: After I typed this review I actually laughed for about 2 solid mins because I talked as if these books characters were in fact real hehe

Valerie says

I enjoyed the series, but I was so tired of the whining from Kennedy and Jada.

I understood their pain, but they took it to far. Just move on or accept the past for what it was....OVER with.

Yes!!!

I loved this story. My heart broke with the women in this book. Every page from the first book had my heart racing and hoping things would get better and that love would prevail. Not quite what I wanted but all good. Jessica has a way of bringing something fresh to every story she writes. I love her style and would read anything with her name attached. She is always worth the money

Dee Cherry says

Storyline remained consistent as content provided closure. I felt the characters feelings while dealing with turmoil & disappointments were adequately expressed throughout...Siren was a character that was needed in this series for her snake nature was a force that kept the drama flowing. I thought Kennedy's decision dealing with King was appropriate for her meek character...While Jada's reactions were at times a bit extreme, it was her way of dealing with a difficult situation. Overall, I thought A Thug's Love was a series worth reading & I encourage all to read.

Victoria says

I liked this final installment, but I did not Love it.... I wanted more pop from page to page... I felt Jada's pain, but at the same time, felt she was a bit too out of control. I was not looking for a HEA with no get back for Dolla but, I was looking for more growth in his behavior. I was very happy with Siren end but not so much with Maria. I wanted to see Kings handling of her more upfront and on the pages. Overall if you are a Jessica fan you will be happy, but for me It was missing the usual Jessica vibrant expression.

Michelle Davis says

I have encountered many villainous characters before but I don't think I've read about one that was as diabolical and evil as Siren. This was an extremely well thought out plot and cast of characters. I absolutely loved the love that King and Kennedy had for one another. They were the epitome of hood love!! He was unfailingly faithful to her and she was just as loyal to him. It saddened me to read her inner thoughts about King falling off of the pedestal that she had placed him upon. But the realism that was captured during this emotional period of the story just bled through the words. Dolla and Jada are a true example of what happens when you give more of yourself to a relationship and allow the person to take for granted and advantage of your kindness. Jada was a good woman but she used the example set by her mother and brought that destructive thinking into her own relationship resulting in its demise. Overall the book was a great read and one that I was saddened to see come to an end. I'm sure that Ms. Watkins has much in store for us in the future and I for one can't wait to see what she pulls out of her sleeve.
