From Reader Review Horses For Dummies for online ebook

Jennifer says

I'm not really the target audience for this book--I'm not planning on ever owning a horse or even riding one often, but I have horse-loving friends and wanted to learn more--but it's clear, engagingly-written and informative.

Jaguar says

This book was basic and provided alot of the same information as Horseback Riding for Dummies. There are still different things I hadn't read though. Good book.

Kathy says

Great for beginners.

Leslie Jonsson says

Excellent look at tack, bridle, riding techniques, and the different types of horses, all explained very simply.

Kate Reitzel says

Trusty info; in pursuit of a therapeutic hobby. A before B, if you will.

Turns out the horse is historically a prey animal, which explains why they are notoriously inclined to thee ol' spook'n-dart one-two.

Gussy says

Always like more photos but it was full of useful information.
