Janet Friesner says

A new author for me. Christian fiction. Small book, only 190 pages but it was a lovely Christmas story about a small child found in a dumpster in the town of Redemption, OK. The search of someone to claim him and the two people who found him and the town that fell in love with him. A little feel good book. Easy reading.

Heartwarming story

Well-written and very satisfying romantic tale of the power of love to heal the wary and wounded hearts of a frightened boy and a world-weary man. This is not my first visit to Redemption, not will it be my last.
