Khiaere & Phy 2: A Charleston Love Story Mel Dau

Khiaere and Phy Washington have been through a lot already in their relationship. Outside threats turns to inside conflict. Will their love for each other be able to withstand the test that are being administered against their relationship or will it be too much to handle?

Gina is living the life in Miami with no worries in the world or is she. With eyes on her she has no idea what's in store for her. Is she going to pay her own penance or will she be brought to her knees by the wrath of those offended.

Trell is still being Trell and with Tae by his side he seems unstoppable. Will their relationship be the love Tae needs to heal her broken, abandoned heart? Will a new presence in her life offer something that no one else can, even Trell?

Choppa is who you need to see when you need a job done. Being down with Khiaere and Trell from the sandbox offers an undying loyalty that no one can shake. Coming on the scene and making his place known he in not to be played with. It's something to be said about love and how it can alter your thinking of a man. Is love worth giving up loyalty?

Delia is a key player in a game she didn't even sign up to take part in. Gina has been her friend since youth but was it out of love and loyalty or something else? Will her involuntary role cost her more than she ever bargained for or will it introduce a saving grace that could alter life as she knows it?

Continue the journey with the crew as they take on the threats of their relationships. Will they all be strong enough to handle what life has to throw at them or will lines be drawn in the sand. Find out in Part 2 of this Charleston Love Story.

Not your usual Dope Boy/ Baby Mama drama!!

Keeps building and building!!

Love that Tae finally got some happiness all the way around, Mom, brothers, Trell and kids!!

Choppa has nothing but love for Delia and Liam... cant wait for them to get at Charles, some happiness for Delia was past due!! Gina was worse than we thought she was, but her demise was so fitting!! Mama Rosa passing was sad, but love how the author didn't exploit the situation. The whole crew being related was a fun twist, since they already had loyalty and love for each other. Khiaere and Phy are still magic.

Can't wait for Justice Rose..Time to see Choppa in action!!

Good job

I loved it. I felt all the love in this book. The couples in this book make you believe in love and marriage.

They also make you feel and know marriage is hard but it's worth it all in the end. Now on to the craziness in this book lord Gina got all she deserved. You should have brought her back to life just kill her again. You did a great job

Omg

Mel this is my first read from you and baby you added to that my favorite author list.....Choppa is bae lol I would've been popped that cherry for him....I'm so excited you are doing their story next yayyyy I can't wait to read it.....This series is a must read..I was laughing, doing the ugly cry, and mad all at the same time lol...Gina and her daddy were sick in the head for real. Everybody turned out to be perfect for each other. Phy and Tae gone end up with a zoo if they keep on with Khia and Trell lol..This series is a must read.....

Awesome series

I hated for this series to end. I laugh and cried throughout the book. I felt like I had a connection with the couples. When Mama Rose died I cried. She was such a big part of their lives. I'm glad they killed that snake Gina. The way she had did Delia was sickening. She got what she deserved. I'm glad Delia and Choppa got together. I can't wait to read more on them. I recommend reading this series.

Yeah This Is Good!!!

First let me say.if you are not following this series then you are missing out.This was such a good follow-up to the first story and very well thought out.I love that the writer gives you an inside look at the characters lives and how they are living.This story deals with some very heavy topics and the writer handles them beautifully.There is chemistry in this story that it just flows effortlessly and you can tell this when you don't experience any down time.There where however a few typos that didn't get in the way of the story but it was a little bit distracting.This was an experience and a rollercoaster ride and I can wait for the next installment.

Yasss

This series was OFF THE chain I can't believe Gina was doing all that especially to Delia speaking of her she found her love which is Choppa.. everything that went on in this books was crazy I'm glad that Tae meet her mom and she found out she had brothers and she knew them but never knew they were her brothers ... I'm so ready for this spinoff so they can find Charles

Loved it

I have never cried over a book on my life this hard. This book was everything. This is the first series that I read from this author, and I have to say the pettiness was real, the relationships were like something you see every day. I would like to see more from this author. I want to hear about the rest of the characters background.

Metris says

Oh my goodness book 2 was even BETTER. I don't know if I wanna give my heart to Trell or Choppa, Choppa is winning by a little bit (heart eyes). I love these men Khia, Trell, Choppa, Co, Reese & Codeine and the women who loves them... Phy, Tae, Delia. Bring on the next book Mel.

Desirer Dollar says

Phy and Khia, Tae and Trell, and Delia and Justice were the cutest couples ever. Even though Khia almost lost his way when Grand Mama died, he realized that his family needed him, and he soon got his act together. I loved that Tae and Trell always confessed their love to one another. Some men think that it's weak, but real men know that it keeps their woman feeling confident and self assured. Gina deserved everything that she got, and she was definitely a product of where she came from. Delia was a victim for a long time, and I'm so happy that she found her strength, and to know that she had an entire support system with her was priceless....what a beautiful story.

they really do live in a small town. everybody running around shouting cousin. Delia i really feel for her, she shows great strength and determination. chop go head boy, you strong willed I commend you. Gina is sick her momma sick and her daddy sick. awww mama Linda and tar baby I wonder what would have come of them if she didn't walk away, or if they would have crossed paths. grandma rose

Loved it ???

Sooo good. Another good book ?. Love all the characters that Khiaere is my kind of man. Love the way you described both his a Trell character ? and my girls are what you call some real Boss B ?. But that damn Gina was out cold ? can you say one sick ? B. Girl I could go on and on. Just get the Book ??

Shirley Mcqueen says

Wow i loved this part

Man Mel Dau you did your thing with this part was glad Gina finally got her karma i hated the way she did Dee is was very interesting to learn everybody was related n some type of way Tae finally finding her mother was awesome this series was very good everybody was well educated & not into drugs it was a wonderful love story

Book junkie💋 says

This series was good. I will say it had me a little teary eyed. I was so happy for Tae that she finally got to meet her mom. It was good that she let her explain why she left her. I'm glad they finally caught up with Gina trifling behind. It's crazy how everybody is connected to each other. I'm glad they also gave Delia a chance, it's crazy how Gina and her dad did all that stuff to her. It was sad when mama Rosa died, that really had me in tears. Can't wait to read about Choppa and Delia?????
