I have loved the books up to this point, but I keep thinking that the Fox is needs to stop and stand up for herself. I can't read anymore.

Not any more

I'm sorry but I can't read this anymore the more I read it the more I see Lara and her pack and control freaks and users. Then take and take and give nothing in return. I started out loving this relationship because it was fair now it is all about controlling the fox and she continues to give because she loves them but she doesn't anyone in the situation would start hating everyone around them but the write makes her look weak and grows weaker everyday. I will look for a book where the Fox's finally has enough and leave or the wolf's throw her out. I'll read about her strength when I first started reading this book it was about the smallest person fighting for her freedom and now it's all about her submitting herself and her freedom and giving away her life to somebody who just wants to control her over and over. Abuse is a big point in this book and the worst part about it it's mostly mental abuse and it seems like it's agreed on so I'm sorry but I can't.
