Really loved this selection of books and the last one was the best. You just have to read them yourself. Would have scored them more if I could have

OVERALL:

FLEDGLING By Natasha Brown

SEVENTH MARK – Part 1 by W.J. May

Crush (The Crush Saga, #1) by Chrissy Peebles- 2 stars

When Taylor sparks moves with her family to California her meeting with the locals doesn't go as expected. Her new crush Jesse is hiding something from her.

Really? One stupid mistake after another for the characters. The characters don't have much of an attention span, they jump from one thing to another. Taylor just acts dumb and has no common sense whatsoever. The characters were flat, there was no substance to them at all. I thought the writing was sloppy and the story did not have as much action as I thought it would.

1. Fledgling (Shapeshifter Chronicles #1) by Natasha Brown ***2 DNF Stars

This started off great, it was a sweet YA with nice characters and the slow buildup of something paranormal. Everything was going fine until Ana noticed what resembled Chance's necklace on a fox and decided to immediately accuse him of playing some horrible prank on her the whole time she knew him. This is the same guy who spent the entire day with her in a hospital while she had a procedure done. What kind of awful person wouldn't give someone like that the benefit of the doubt?!

2. Seventh Mark Part 1 by W.J. May ***3 Stars (PR)

So this wasn't great, Rouge befriends Grace and Michael and it quickly becomes blatantly clear that strange things are going on. You get little tidbits but no real information. This was a quick read and didn't really have a cliff hanger so much as this is literally the first part of the story. I think I may continue this series.

3. Crush by Chrissy Peebles *1 DNF Star (PR)

Taylor moves to California and runs into the supernatural. Like literally, everywhere. Unbelievable situations, unreasonable reactions...This just didn't have a good story, or good characters, or good dialogue.

4. Once Bitten (Alexa O'Brien Huntress #1) by Trina M. Lee *1 DNF Star

Alexa is a werewolf who hunts down paranormal creatures who step out of line. She has to find out who is trying to frame her former lover and Alpha for murder before werewolves are exposed to the public. This was just really all over the place. You have the story line of her dealing with the feelings she still has for Raul even though he's a complete tool...the feelings she has for Shaz (which at first are made to seem like they are sibling like) but they are nothing like the metaphysical draw she has towards the vampire Arys. She finally ends up sleeping with the vampire and they have some sort of power exchange and they both go a little haywire. When she goes into her office for work she asks her boss about the werewolf who killed her family....out of nowhere!! Earlier in the book she made it seem like she tried not to think about it because she wasn't even sure what she would do with the information. Then there's the random run in with a demon, witches and power crystals...all sorts of stuff. But it had no flow and one chapter to the next were so different it seemed like they were out of order.

5. Venom by Kristen Middleton ***3 Stars (PR)

Chelsey goes to the new nightclub in town to try and find out what happened to her cousin Melody. She does find her cousin but she also finds a bunch of vampires and werewolves. This was a short novella, I had a good amount of issues with this authors use of stereotypes without giving the characters any original voice. I think I gave it 3 stars because in comparison I enjoyed it a lot more than the last few I read from her.

6. Ignite by Kaitlyn Davis ***3 Stars (PR)

I've said this before...I have no problem with love triangles...that being said, this book didn't really have that going on. This was more about the romance between Tristan and Kira and the obstacles facing them as a couple. One of those obstacles being the society of conduits that fight vampires. They aren't super thrilled with Kira even existing so dating a vampire is an extra big no-no. The conduits are split on their views of how to deal with vampires, I thought that was interesting and added a nice layer to the vampires v. super-humans story....who's right and who's wrong and all that. I liked that the story moved quickly and didn't drag out and overall I enjoyed it but ....it just didn't get there for me. I didn't feel as strongly for the characters in the end as I probably should have.

7. Love Begins in Hell by Ally Thomas *1 DNF Star

This was "Virgin Moon" but slightly different telling. I was interested in the story before and the slight differences in this were not enough to make me read this.

8. Wolf Spell by M.R. Polish Not Interested

Arabeth/Esmerelda is kidnapped from her mother's funeral only to be told that she is a witch, her mother is alive...but she's not her real mother anyway. Ara was not pleased at being kidnapped, until Jarak shows up....hot guys fix everything you know. I thought the blurb sounding promising but I struggled to control my eye rolling through the first 3 chapters.

9. Verity by Claire Farrell ***3 Stars (PR)

Ok, so the story wasn't so bad...I just wish there was more of it. Instead of why these random werewolves were attacking and who exactly they were after and why we had to read about Dawn flirting with Nathan, Tammie being a bipolar biatch and Perdy's Dad and Grandma being the worst parenting duo ever.

There was more bad than good with this group

There were a few decent reads with this set of books however most were ill written and more for teenagers - certainly not adults. I didn't even finish three stories because they jumped around so much . I would not waste my time if I could have a do over.

Fantastic collection of stories. I have found numerous new author s to follow and I will defiantly be collecting books.

KandyMay Poff says

Hmmmm

The story written by W.J. May was good, no surprise for me there.

I enjoyed all the other stories with the exception of one. As much as I don't like to give bad reviews, Love Begins in Hell, read like a first draft, including switching from first to third person in the same sentence, on a few different occasions. There were a lot of typos and there were parts of the story that made absolutely no sense. I was disappointed that this story was allowed to be in the anthology with someone like W.J. May.

Birgit says

I was taught that if you don't have to say something positive about someone, you'd better keep your mouth shut.....but I can't.

In all fairness, I expected something different, "normal" shifter stories, not horror ones. Still, I like horror stories (King, Koontz, etc), but this collection of stories was just.....bad, sorry to say. And I would say, contrary to the title description, more intended for young adults than adults.

Bad style, bad narration, in one case, the author hadn't even gone to the effort to cross check his/her own story - there were so many context errors, wrong genders, wrong names etc etc.

I will not even mention the plethora of spelling and grammar errors!

There was only one story I personally liked, that was the last but one.

Apart from that: if the majority of plots had been good, I would have overlooked bad narration style and what I call "stick-figure" characters, but alas, that was not the case. Most plots and characters were badly thought out and did not have any depth at all.

Sorry, but I cannot recommend this to anyone.
