Chronologically this story is set after the epidemy of Anavuaina and before going to Nunda prison. This means it happened at the time of book 6 in the initial series.

Alright, the story was witty! I found a lot of good ideas, or rather answers too some of the questions - as promised. Although I find the book nice and entertaining, some things left me unsatisfied:

I thought that the protagonist (sir Max) was a little too ridiculous in trying to be good for everyone. His inner monologue didn't seem the kind I remember he used to have. As well as Shurf was too emotional, and Kofa not too wise.
