'My beloved isn't dazzling light, Darkness is my beloved - The reason I'm so fond of her...' The poet gives his reason for loving his darkness. The all-pervading darkness is primordial, it is something very pure. The poet shows that it is not something to be feared, but to love and to embrace. Darkness is the song of the profound silence, to be listened to and to be enjoyed... The present collection is the Bengali version of the book 'Poems of Darkness'.
