How to Marry a Millionaire Vampire Kerrelyn Sparks

So what if he's a bit older and usually regards a human female as dinner, not a dinner date? Yes, Roman Draganesti is a vampire, but a vampire who lost one of his fangs sinking his teeth into something he shouldn't have. Now he has one night to find a dentist before his natural healing abilities close the wound, leaving him a lop-sided eater for all eternity.

Things aren't going well for Shanna Whelan either...After witnessing a gruesome murder by the Russian mafia, she's next on their hit list. And her career as a dentist appears to be on a downward spiral because she's afraid of blood. When Roman rescues her from an assassination attempt, she wonders if she's found the one man who can keep her alive. Though the attraction between them is immediate and hot, can Shanna conquer her fear of blood to fix Roman's fang? And if she does, what will prevent Roman from using his fangs on her...

DNF 32%. I'm giving up. You know, there is nothing wrong with this and it's actually kind of funny and cute. It's just that I really don't do chick lit - not even paranormal chick lit, and that is definitely what this is.

And I'll add that it took 30% of the whole book to get his dang fang implanted again. That is just ridiculously long for such a minor plot point. 30%. Since he had to get it put back in before sunrise or his body would heal without the fang, that meant that only a handful of hours had passed in 30% of the book. I was just like:

But, I get why people would dig this. And it's not you, book. It's me.

Hey, at least that's another one from 2014 off my TBR shelf, one way or the other! :)

Original post: I just paid $1.99 for this on Amazon because: cheap. And vampires. And it's been on my TBR since 2014. Wish me luck!

Me encanta! No lo he dejado ni un minuto! Necesitaba un cambio de lecturas y personajes y nada mejor que un vampiro.

Roman y Shanna son adorables pero lo que más me gustaron si es posible fueron los highlanders (como no!!!! Jajajaja)

El padre de Shanna dios que pesadito de verdad espero que no vuelva a por ellos otra vez. Joder no puede entender y dejar en paz a su hija? No ????

Me he reido mucho con Shanna, sobre todo la primera vez cuando pensó que estaba dormido y le hizo pedorretas en la barriga ????? JAJAJAJAJAJA casi muero de risa allí mismo. Me han dado momentos estupendos, me han hecho sufrir y tener el corazón en un puño! Es un libro estupendo y ligero la verdad. Muy recomendado ?

Fluffy vamp book. I enjoyed how not cool Roman was. Yeah, he was tall, dark, and handsome, but he was so nerdy and morose that made him have zero charm and zero alpha-ness. He's not wimpy, just too busy being depressed to put forth alpha effort.

Shanna wasn't stupid or TSTL, appreciated that a lot. Would've liked to have seen her get mad more about some things and be less weepy. Overall, liked that she was boringly normal, a dentist.

Now gimme those kilts vamps. Woohoo.

Jilly says

You know those Master Vampires who are all suave, debonair, alpha-sexy, and charming as hell? This guy is the anti-that. Roman is a master vamp who is depressed, sexless, and a bit of a geek. He's into that sciency stuff. Now, I admit that I like to science with my friends, especially if it involves researching abs, alien sex, or mermen who don't have tails (or fins, or gills - why were they called mermen again?), and such. But, Roman spends all of his time in the lab doing non-vampire sex stuff. What the hell? He doesn't even wear leather pants! Seriously, he needs to give-up his sexy vampire membership card.

On the other hand, he employs an army of vampire highlanders. In kilts. So, come back, Roman, all is forgiven.

His kilts army finds out that there is a special CIA task force dedicated to wiping out all vampires.

"Can't we convince the CIA that some of us are peaceful?"

"we'll have to try" Angus folded his arms across his broad chest. "And if they doona believe we're peaceful, then we'll have to kill the bastards."

Roman frowned, somehow their Highlander logic escaped him.

Ooooh, I hope they fight! Maybe their kilts will get updrafted and we can get some answers to the age-old question.

This book was funny and very quirky. It was exactly what you would expect from a book that began with a vampire losing one of his fangs in a sex toy. But, even though it was pretty light and fluffy fun, the characters were super charming - and there were a lot of characters. I am really looking forward to reading more of this series.

really looking forward to it...

Lover of Romance says

Roman Draganesti has been a vampire for over 500 hundred years, and is simply put a genius; especially when it comes to the sciences. He is the leader of his coven and is responsible for everyone in it. Roman is a tormented vampire, who believes he is a 'demon from Hell' and even though has helped hundreds in need, he is very miserable. One evening, one of his scientists, Lazlo brings in a fake female body, that is nude and looks real, but thinks will help vampires with the need to sink their fangs into mortals necks, this way there is no risk to humans. Lazlo has also filled this fake specimen with blood, so Roman decides to sink his teeth into it, only by doing so one of his fangs comes out. He is horrified, since it has never happened to a vampire before, let alone someone as old as he is. So he intends to go to a dentist to fix this mess before the sun comes up. Shanna Whelan, is on the run from the russian mafia, who wants her dead. She is in witness protection, and is a dentist since it is something that she loves doing; however she has one slight problem she has a fear of blood. Then she gets a call and she knows the mafia has found her so she runs to flee and runs into Roman Draganesti, who seems charming and handsome but not knowing who he really is she pulls a gun on him. Of course guns with regular bullets won't harm very much vampires, so Roman of course finds the situation humorous. Who wouldn't if one was a vampire right? Roman, accustomed to danger sweeps her off her feet (literally) and saves her life and protects her from those that want to kill her. Therein starts this sensational but dramatic love story, that goes on a ride with ups and down and gives you a thrill of adventure, passion and love.

I have always loved reading Kerrelyn Sparks, every time I read one of her books, I find myself unable to turn away from any of them, this one is no different. I realize I am totally reading this 'Love At Stake' Series out of order, but then I just discovered Sparks not too long ago. So I was really excited when I found this one at the library. I have really wanted to read Roman and Shanna's story, which was just as enchanting as I thought that it would be. You have Roman who is a tormented man, who struggles with his past, since before he became a vampire he was a monk, and believes that God has betrayed him. But throughout this book, Roman figures out the God doesn't betray anyone, especially those that are good. In this one there is a bit of spiritual element, due to the fact of who Roman is as a person, who has tried to right all of the wrongs in his past. Then he finds Shanna who is unlike any mortal that he has ever met. First off she can resist his mental manipulation, which alone makes her special; and the more he gets to know her, the more he realizes that he cannot possibly live without her. Shanna has been on the run, ever since her friend died, and has had to leave all that she knew behind and start a new life. However right when she does, danger and the threats come back to haunt her once more, until she meets the enigmatic handsome stranger that saves her life and protects her. Shanna knows there is something suspicious about him and his personnel, besides the fact that most of his security at night wear kilts and sporans and swords, its like she has been taken back to the medieval time. I definitely loved this one, (especially the whole security guards that are handsome, virile Scots and wear kilts who can resist such a read right?) This book had me cracking up, and tearing up a few times. It was a emotional roller coaster, a ride that I definitely enjoyed taking and am looking forward to reading the rest of the series.

^^HOW TO DO NUMEROUS EYE ROLLS!^^

I do believe this book was feckin with me, it was outrageous, and a little bit on the cheesy side. Let us rephrase, a lot on the cheesy side, and through all this, the book moves quite well. I laughed a little, and I did like some of the characters introduced, but sadly, it wasn't the main characters.

Shanna is in the witness protection program, and is working as a dentist.

Ridiculous 1- she is afraid of blood, but she is a bloody dentist. I don't know who thought this was a good idea but so the book went.

When a tall dark and handsome man walks into the 24hr dentist clinic (eye roll) Shanna has to get him out immediately. Seems the Russians who want her dead have found her and the tall, dark, and good-looking man is about to lose his life along with hers.

Roman needs a dentist when his fang breaks off in sex doll that also administers blood (eye roll #2). He has to get it fixed before he becomes the one fanged vampire, and become the laughing stock of the undead world. When he finds the 24hr clinic and meets its sexy dentist, he gets a lot more than having a broken a fang. He finds Shanna fascinating, because she is able to fight his mind control. Plus, she wild, funny and all that. When some thugs show up at the clinic, it seems Roman is just in time. He has the manpower to protect her, and protect her he will.

Alright, so the book becomes pretty typical. Girl starts to like man, man struggles with the fact that he is a monster, blah blah blah. I really believe this was some kind of vampire spoof. With all the bats and capes (eye roll #3). These vampires revel in the outrageousness with all the black and gloom.

I really have no strong feelings for Roman or Shanna, but I did like Roman's security team. All the Scots with their kilt and burr, mmmm yummy.

Ridiculous 2- Mind sex! That's only cool when I am faraway and we can't have physical contact, or if I am in a meeting.

I have no idea if I will be continuing the series because of the whole series is set up like this, I am gonna need my crazy cap. Truthfully, I liked some parts of the book but in all honesty this book adds nothing to the PNR genre. It's light, fluffy and super sweet.

Funny, I snickered through out the book. Light and funny, not anything too deep. Great romance and characters some in Kilts.

4.5 Stars I really enjoyed this book. I seen all the mixed reviews and I was worried so I put off reading this series for awhile, but this book was really good! This book was so funny. I enjoyed Roman and Shanna as a couple they were very cute, and I like the layout of this vampire world. I liked a lot of the other characters that you meet in this story and hope they get stories of their own.

Looking forward to reading the next one and I would highly recommend this book to any vamp book lovers!

Sheryl says

Although I'm only halfway through, I feel compelled to post a review. To compare, I like this a lot more than the annoying "Sookie Stackhouse" novel though it sort of reminds me of it. There are two extremely annoying things about this book:

1. "God's Blood!" This is the phrase that the main character utters every other paragraph. It was mildly cute the first time, annoying the second time, and by the 2,456th time I gladly would have dug out my eyeballs with a rusty spoon to avoid seeing it typed out again. It made me lose an enormous amount of respect for this seemingly sexy and amazing lead vampire character.

2. I know it might seem necessary, but the heroine's utter bewilderment in discovering -and denying- the vampire world seems incredibly painful and drawn out. I wish she would stop being so dense about every little thing and just realize and accept it already so we (the readers) don't have to be water-tortured by her inability to cope. I feel this character flaw directly conflicts with her other supposed "worldly and street-smart" survival abilities, for example blocking vampire mind control and general survival and defense against the Russian mafia. I am beginning to dislike her as much as Sookie Stackhouse. Can we for once have a heroine that is smart, tough and capable?

To reiterate, I LIKE this book. I am already planning to read the other 150 pages but if these two pet peeves continue to haunt the pages I am not sure I will pick up book #2.

One last thing: Give me more Highlanders! I loved them and I want to hear more about them.

REVIEW IS NOT SUITABLE FOR YOUNG READERS

Wow, did things get hot in this book!

If you're looking for a quirky, laugh-out-loud vampire read, then sink your fangs (I mean fang) into this book!! I would definitely recommend this book to paranormal and vampire lovers. Although the book is NOT suitable for young readers.

From the very first chapter, I could not stop laughing. The incredulity and humor made this book seem fresh and lighthearted. I never thought you could pair the gloominess of vampirism with cheesy humor but Sparks achieved a paranormal action/adventure with a modern twist.

Roman Draganesti is an arrogant, rich and charming vampire. Yet he's in a predicament and enlists the help of Shanna Whelan to help his condition. She's in a bit of trouble herself; after witnessing a gruesome murder, she finds herself a target on the mob's hit list. After deadly shootouts, assassination attempts and attraction to vampire Roman, Shanna finds herself propelled into the unknown world of vampires.

My first (and only) whinge about this book was the repetitive statement of "God's blood". This was an expression often used to depict a character's surprise, shock or lust. It got really old (ancient vampire old) after the tenth time in which it is used and is probably mentioned about 101 times. By the end, I had almost staked myself in frustration. A suggestion would be to find several substitute expressions and use them interchangeably. It would mix it up a little.

Now let's get back to the story. The predicament Roman got himself into?

His fang got stuck in a sex toy.

This is one of the books where you have to read it to believe it.

She wiggled until her nose and mouth found a pocket of air. After a few deep breaths, she realized her precious pocket of air was the crevice between his legs. Wonderful. She was doing heavy breathing on his crotch.

Shanna was a tough character with, ironically, a weakness for blood. What I liked was her ability to stand up for herself- an ideal trait in any paranormal heroine.

She gathered all her strength, every fiber of resistance, and rammed her knee into his groin.

Roman - The Millionaire Vampire

Roman was instantly likeable. He's witty, clever, caring, arrogant and full of sexual comments and innuendos.

She gave him a suspicious look. "You wouldn't do any of those weird post-hypnotic suggestions, would you? Like making me strip naked and crow like a rooster whenever someone yells taxi."

"I have no desire to see you crow. And as for the other- " He leaned closer and whispered, "It sounds most intriguing, but I would prefer any stripping to be totally voluntary."

.....Now cue the unresolved sexual tension! ;)

Despite his arrogance, he was selfless, vulnerable and easy to fall in love with.

Funny scene/quote

I'd have to put the whole book here but this part made me laugh.

"Sir!" Laszlo's voice rose an octave. He twirled a button with his fingers. "There isn't enough time for-for two treatments. You must decide between your-your tooth or your...." With a grimace, he glanced at Roman's swollen jeans.

My fang or my yang?

What even is this book? Haha

This book is filled with adventure, vampires, action and humor wrapped into one big package. [That innuendo ;)]

Definitely a must-read for all paranormal lovers!

Anna Aerys says

What can I say...

The ideas in the book are interesting, it's what kept me reading. BUT the quality was horrible. felt like I was reading the draft of a book. Some things could have been fleshed out a lot more. Many things were repetitive! God's blood it was repetitive!! lol.

I give the ideas 3/5, quality 2/5.

Would I read it again? NO...

Continue the series? NO!

Recommend it? Maybe not. It annoyed me for the most part, especially the dumb rushed ending.

Rebecca (everyday reader) says

When a vampire has to go to a dentist to fix a fang, I'm sorry but it is just funny. I think the way Shanna is introduced to Roman's world is a page turning ride. Their attraction to one another is off the charts, and vampire sex is cool! Her dad is the monster he accuses the vamps of being. I love how good they are for each other, Roman needs love and Shanna hasn't had good males around her. This is a great beginning for the series. Great read!!
