THE LEGENDARY CHILD

As a baby, Runa Rindô was left in front of a school for foster children, wearing a mysterious pendant. Now she's in fourth grade and strange things are starting to happen around her. It's only a matter of time before she discovers her secret powers—and her quest as the Legendary Fairy Child begins!

Includes special extras after the story!

Dominique Castaneda says

a little childish- but it's real good!

Dorcas says

Cute and sweet in parts, though the thing that appears on the back of her neck...oddly not cute and kind of freaky in an "out of place" kind of way in comparison with the artwork shown through out the rest of the book.

Filemon Tursas says

Herttaista taikatyttöhölynpölyä mukavalla moraalisella sanomalla. Päähenkilön niskaan ilmestynvä ylimääräinen silmä nostatti yllättäviä Junji Ito -viboja

Selena says

This one started out really slow. I mean, this thing was slow. Half of it was background and build up. Even after the fairies started showing up, it felt like it was meandering. It wasn't until halfway through the 3rd chapter and the last chapter that things picked up. Once it did, though, man was that a wild ride. Once things got moving, it moved.

Once things actually started happening, then it got good. Like, really good.

Slog through the exposition people! Once our Magical Girl gets her power, it's well worth it.

Elly says

It was so cute!It shows what true friendship and courage are.

---

BlueTheNightmare says

This book was great but don't read it cause they stopped making book 3,4,5,6,7
