Beginning readers devoted to such characters as Henry and Mudge, Clifford, and Marley will adore this Dixie adventure, Dixie and the Good Deeds.

Dixie the puppy faces many of the problems elementary school kids do. She wants to be good, but she makes mistakes. She worries about whether she'll be able to make new friends. She doesn't understand why bullies can't just be nice. She wishes she could spend all her time with her BFF, Emma, and feels left out when she can't.

In Dixie and the Good Deeds, Emma takes on more volunteering projects in her community than she can handle. It's up to Dixie to come to the rescue. Full-color illustrations by Sarah McConnell add to the humor in this story by Grace Gilman.

Alina Lu says

Dixie helps Emma to finish her magic show, which is cool.

Caleb says

Caleb (age 4): "The only part I liked was that Dixie brought the bunny back for her trick. That's it."

Logan Leftridge says

It was boring.

Margaret Chind says

Dixie loves her Emma and always wants to play and help. Mid-way through the book I wondered if Emma would ever find time for Dixie, but she definitely did. Dixie was able to help in a very appropriate way. Then in a way it happens again when Emma doesn't expect it. Different from Marley's Storybook Treasury yet full of dog-loving fun.
