For ages 3-9 Imagine being a lonely little bear with a big imagination and just one dream: to become a soldier, preferably a United States Marine. It takes a friend enter a lopsided little kitten with a wobbly eye and a plan to dig a foxhole in the forest to set into motion an adventure that culminates in a dramatic rescue mission worthy of the United States Marines. Ooh! Rah! Louis-Joseph's Ooh Rah is an adventure story for every young reader who harbours the dream of becoming a brave soldier.
