Tailspin (Uniformly Hot!, #19) Cara Summers

Subject: Air Force Captain Nash Fortune Current Status: On assignment, teaching at the Air Force Academy
Mission: Brief his former flame on long-ago event. Full disclosure. Obstacle: Their past. Their future. And a very distracting present!

Bianca Quinn makes her living writing true-crime books. Her latest book is about a decade-old case involving a missing cadet- a case somebody doesn't want opened. And her best source of intel? None other than her still-way-too-hot high-school sweetheart, Nash Fortune....

But this is no sweet, shy reunion. That same heated chemistry is still very potent, and Bianca and Nash find themselves losing control-fast! Can they pull out of the tailspin...or do they dare find out just how far this desire might go?

I enjoy the Uniformly Hot series to varying degrees and this time we have Airforce pilot and now instructor Nash Fortune reuniting with his teenage love Bianca, now a published writer.

They were all set to elope when Nash's grandmother intervened and gave Bianca an opportunity to follow her dreams and better her life. Nash was angry but not bitter and now Bianca has come back to do a story on his family and the disappearance of someone they knew.

I enjoyed the book though at the start I didn't understand why none of them were bitter. Nash was okay with Bianca taking money and running out on him, since he was explained it was for her to make a better life. Once she's back he knows she's the one, but she is a planner and needs convincing while he is impulsive.

A decent book and I am going to check out Gabe's story.

Nash and Bianca were childhood sweethearts. They almost eloped to Vegas before Bianca was paid off to leave by Nash's grandmother. Nash wanted to be a Air Force Captain and be awarded medals. Bianca wanted to be a writer. 10 years later, they have their career's. Nash is now on assignment teaching at the Air Force Academy, after medaled for his flights in war. Bianca has a best seller true crime novel under her belt, that blew open a man that was in prison for something he didn't do, and put the man truly responsible behind bars.

Can they pick up where they left off? I gave this a 5 star...

Cathy Beckett says

Bianca Quinn and Nash Fortune are in love with each other and have been since they were teenagers. They have been separated for 11 years because Nash's grandmother bribed Bianca with a full ride scholarship to an Ivy League college.

Bianca is back home now. She is a successful writer of true crime novels. Nash's grandmother has hired Bianca to investigate the Fortune family while Bianca is researching the disappearance of a young Air Force Academy cadet.

Nash agrees to help Bianca with the research for both book projects. Nash was a cadet at the academy when Cadet Brian Silko went missing and he his now a flight instructor for the academy so he can open doors that have been slammed in Bianca's face. He also wants to start their relationship over. Boy does he start over. I loved his courtship tactics.

Reminds me why I don't read Mills and Boon books.

A nice, straightforward mystery without too many complications. A girl is escaping from something. She is running to her uncle's hidden estate when she hears a plane go down near her. She helps save the two men on board,.. one of which is an FBI agent. Good escape
