Cathy says

I really like this manga, but the last 2 volumes have so much filler and the pace is getting kinda slow...

I gave up on this series for a year, then scored the next two volumes cheap at the Anime con in May. They have not disappointed--back stories==humor--teary eyed moments. Adored it all. All the characters grew for me- and I cannot wait to grab the remaining volumes, though I fear the series peaked in this two--8/9. these are the shining moments for a strange series and the trivial humor quotes here/there are great as well!

Monique says

A solid volume with a nice mix of chapters. Some of which moved the story along, others that further explored Sumire or Takeshi's characters

Things are starting to get interesting with Hasumi being in Hong Kong. The final chapter has a particularly nice cliffhanger. I'm looking forward to reading more in the next volume.

the first half of this volume was great -- yay for sumire winning over ms. lee! yay for heartwarming old lady flashbacks! -- but i am not feeling positive about upcoming plot developments

The pace is slowing down a bit, which is unfortunate, however there is a funny chapter when the roles are reversed, and Sumire has to be Takeshi's pet for a day! Not only is it fun, but Sumire realises that some of her behaviour towards Momo is perhaps a bit degrading...

I'm NOT okay with the cliffhanger though - sexual assault is not okay in ANY form. Disappointed that this is part of the storyline.

rule 43: In her memory, made me cry like a baby! It was so sweet and cute! That old lady was just adorable! I can't get the last page of the now solemn dog staring up at the moon out of my head. maybe because the concept feels personal. *still crying whilst writing review*

Laurianne Uy says

I'm so glad Sumire's finally chilling out with Hasumi but of COURSE, he's gotta be with that lady.

The amnesia part was fluff but hilarious. XD
