Read this book out loud to my 5 year old daughter and my 3 (almost 4) year old son. It kept them engaged and every night they had conversations speculating “who done it” and why. It was a great beginning “chapter book” for them.

Library_Dweller89 says

This was a super cute edition the Hardy Boys canon

Quinnd2006 says

I always loved mysteries because you never know what's going to happen. My favorite part was when Frank and Joe found out when the money was stolen. Frank and Joe are brothers. My favorite character was Joe. I liked Joe better because he was the more curious brother. I would recommend this book to anyone who likes mysteries.

Matthew Ridley says

My brother read it to me.

Nathan says

I thought it was great!

"Dude" (age 6) is trying out this series...he's been looking for a chapter book series (besides MTH and Boxcar) that he can get into...hopefully this one will hit the spot!

TheBookWorm🐛 🐛 says

I like this book because i love mysteries.

I read this to my 3 kids, and we all took bets on "who done it." Since I'm the winner I give it 5 stars. Them's the rules.

This was our first hardy boys read (Michael read ahead some of the chapters on his own). As a huge Nancy Drew fan when I was about nine, it's fun to see my kids enjoying this genre.

We enjoyed the book... it reminds me of the great brain books... we'll have to try one of those soon.

Tara says

An interesting mystery. Not my favorite but not bad.

Jesse says

I enjoyed this book because it is about how the money gets stolen and the hardy brother have to do what their dad does. What their dad does is he helps out the police find mystery problem. The Hardy brothers are timed to find the money. The Hardy brothers solved a mystery problem which was that the money went missing and the Hardy brothers have to find the money so they ask questions to find the money.

A well-adapted version of the Hardy Boys for the new millennium and the video game crowd. Will do well at introducing budding readers to the Hardy Boys and hopefully entice them to read the classics. Will appeal to both boys and girls.

Mary says

A great introduction to the Hardy Boys had Frank and Joe when they were only 9 and 8 years old.
