The Mighty Quinns: Teague Kate Hoffmann

For veterinarian Teague Quinn, life in the outback is pretty predictable...until his first love—his forbidden love!—Hayley Fraser, comes home and shakes things up. And nothing gets more rattled than Teague's libido....

Teague had been Hayley's childhood sweetheart. But there's nothing boyish about the sexy Aussie now. He's grown to be everything Hayley ever wanted in a man. Unfortunately, Teague's also a Quinn, and the feud between their families is still going strong.

No way can they act on their attraction. Because getting a Quinn and a Fraser together is just asking for trouble....

The most irresistible kind of trouble!

Jacquie says

This book was ok, but not great. Hayley was very self-centered to me. I understand she had a tough upbringing, but she just shuts everyone off and tries to do everything for herself. Teague is very sweet and caring and in my personal opinion too good for Hayley, but hey, it is a book and not overly too bad. Just don't think I would read it again though.

Kathy says

Setting: Queensland, Australia – Kerry Creek, cattle station; Wallaroo, cattle station; soap opera in Sydney; 16 bungalow island resort;

Theme: loss; worthiness; love;

Characters:

Teague Quinn: middle son; happily grew up on cattle station with a love of healing animals; became vet specializing in equines; as young teens and older, befriended and grew into his sexuality with neighbor Haley; his first and only love, he never understood why she didn't come to him as they planned... why he didn't answer his letters; he follows Haley's career and dating life in the tabloids;

Haley Fraser: lost parents when young; father estranged from his father so she went into foster care; at 14 grandfather reluctantly took her in – on his cattle ranch; he was unsure what to do, and his cold nature (to hide his own loss of his beloved in childbirth) left her feeling a burden and unloved; she comes across Teague laying out on his rock... they become best friends (he is the only one to care about her), and later develop into exploratory sex and lovers; when he goes to college, though he fully expects her to join him when she turns 18, she chickens out... her grandfather blocked her letters going out, and his letters/calls coming in... and 'runs' away, ending up in Sydney, working odd jobs, and is 'discovered' and becomes a vixen on a soap opera;

Callum / Gemma : older brother / genealogist from Ireland;

Brody / Payton Harwell: younger brother / pretty American he met in jail;

Tapper & Molly: sturdy chestnut gelding & her horse, given to her by granddad

Mary – substitute mother and housekeeper on the cattle ranch after mom went to the city;

Summary: Sweet story of young love... separation/fear... reunion... insecurity... passion... sacrifice... love Teague always sure of what he wanted – Haley... and to be a vet... when he finds Haley back at her homestead, because someone called her to tell her that her grandfather's help had left with an emergency, and he was doing poorly, and she has time off before shooting resumes... grandfather has taken the Quinns to court 3 times over the years over a strip of land he thinks belong to him (gambling settlement?) and is reopening the case now – making the brothers all the more wary of their neighbor; the homestead is neglected... and Haley is learning to handle her grandfather's gruffness with her own (you will shave and clean up before I serve you dinner)...

Haley and Teague fall into each other's arms... Haley trying unsuccessfully to keep emotional distance, as their lives are very different; they spend time in the shack (where they first made love)... they spend time riding horses around ranch... she comes to their place for dinner... he gets her to join him for 3 nights on a resort island... and he hopes to convince her to want to find a way to be together ... forever...

But grandpa falls and breaks a hip... and he's refusing treatment... she goes to him... Teague tries to support her... Teague convinces his brother to sell the plot of land grandfather wants (water rights) and he signs it over to the grandfather (to make Haley happy) and grandfather acknowledges to Teague he hadn't done right by her – and illicit his ... It does... he has the hip surgery... seems to be doing well... but passes away in his sleep... a week later (his ashes poured from Teague's plane over the homestead)... and reading of the will... grandpa changed it... giving half to Teague... each have to live there at least first she's 6 months of the year... after 5 years may sell out... grandpa's way to insure her happiness... at first she's pissed – thinking Teague influenced her grandfather... she flies to LA for an audition while Teague moves onto the ranch, and starts to fix things up and prepare to breed horses (a once upon shared dream)... in LA, while waiting for her interview, the lightbulb comes on... and she knows where her heart is... and she returns to Australia... and right into Teague's happy arms... ahhh

TINNGG says

It had its moments...

The h... let's just say I wanted to bitch-slap her into next week, and then the next week, wash, rinse, repeat.

The H/h were friends as kids, then lovers. Then, oh nos; he goes off to university so she essentially throws a tantrum in her room and runs away "because he abandoned her". Oh, but her grandfather didn't get along with his family and was hiding his letters to her/not posting her letters to him (and it never occurred to the twit apparently).

Now, years later, she's a soap star (a step above making commercials I guess), with a decent income and...

She wants financial security, which I began to realize she wants to be a gazillionaire so she'll never be homeless (because there's no middle ground apparently). He just wants her. Why, I dunno. She's perfectly willing to use him for sex, but keeps telling him she's not staying. And he keeps putting out which makes him seem like the pathetic girl who thinks her magic hoohah will win him over (except it's apparently a magic pen but whatever).

He starts feeling resentment at being used near the end, she tells him not to be cruel. He tells her he's just being honest.

At the end, she's figured out she wants him so has come home, discovered the shanghaied mail. He's...hesitant. Wonder why. Unfortunately, like many heroines in category romance, he falls over with his legs in the air (or dick in this case).
