Annika says

Very pleased with this ND book. Everybody had a motive and the culprit wasn't that obvious, I felt like I couldn't pinpoint anybody and I'm so impressed Nancy could. Here are some pros and cons:

Pros:

Bess and Nancy are together, yay!

Hard to guess culprit

Cool mystery plot

Loved the setting( Chicago, Recording Studios )

Reminded me of The Final Scene Nd Game and Book

Cons:

No Ned

No George

No Carson Drew

No Hannah

No River Heights

Modern writing style (miss the old Nd book style)

But the cons really didn't do much, I Loved this book so much!! <3

Content: PG - Mild violence

Young model Cindy has landed a huge contract for a cereal company, but goes missing before she can shoot the commercial. This commercial could be Cindy's big break, she wouldn't miss it on purpose, could someone have kidnapped Cindy?

Yeah, ini buku seri Nancy Drew pertama yang gw baca. Gw suka banget membaca buku tentang detektif atau sejenisnya, menelusuri setiap petunjuk yang ada untuk menemukan sesuatu yang dicari.

Nancy adalah sosok yang jadi inspirasi gw saat gw SMP dan SMA, Nancy juga yang akhirnya memotivasi gw untuk terus belajar membaca buku berbahasa Enggres. Seri Nancy Drew ini cocok banget dibaca sama lo semua yang baru memulai untuk membaca buku berbahasa Enggres.

Menyelam sambil minum air, menikmati cerita yang kece abis (menurut gw saat gw sekolah dulu) sambil belajar membaca buku berbahasa Enggres supaya kelak bisa kembali membaca buku berbahasa Enggres dengan kesulitan yang lebih tinggi. :D

2.5 stars

I missed George! And the culprit was too obvious! Above all, I am too old to be stuck with Nancy Drew! :D

I remember reading this a few years ago ( also ), and I very much enjoyed it! :)

Read it when I was sick.

Now, I don't read when I'm sick, makes my head hurt... :(

I should though, at least try.

Another exciting and fun mystery, with plenty of twists and turns.

LuAnn says

Not the most creative title, but a very good mystery with a different sort of culprit. Sabotage as usual, but then Nancy doesn't do murder mysteries, but there's kidnapping as well and lots of running around Chicago, threats to Nancy and Bess and fashion and filming.

This book is written by the same author as the original Nancy Drew series; however, the style is much more modern and simple. Nancy Drew and her close friend Bess Marvin visit their high school friend Cindy Sunderland in Chicago. Cindy is a new and upcoming model that has just gotten a new gig as the "Healthibits" girl, a new healthy cereal. The first day of shooting, Cindy fails to show up at the filming studio on time and goes missing for more than 48 hours. Nancy Drew and Bess are quickly assigned to solve the mystery of where Cindy has gone. Cindy's manager is called at her home, and Cindy is said to have been kidnapped. This alarms everyone, and initiates a chain of mysterious and terrifying events at the studio. Nancy and Bess solve the case rapidly, but it is not at all what you would expect to happen. I really enjoyed that every character is considered a suspect at one point in the book, and everyone has a sensible motive for the kidnapping and horrifying events at the studio. This makes the ending very surprising, because the culprit is totally unexpected yet plausible. I did, however, not enjoy that all the characters seemed the same. There were so many workers and professionals in the commercial filming business, that it was hard to distinguish them from each other. They all had the same personalities and basically the same job. All in all, this book was decent, but nothing too spectacular. Like the original Nancy Drew series, this book had cliffhangers and the end of each chapter, but they seemed rather repetitive and unoriginal. I much prefer the original series, because those stories are more interesting with more charm.

My love of reading started when i was young, and it gives me immense pleasure to provide books to Spread the Word Nevada, an organization that passes them on to children in the community. They are a terrific organization supporting an important cause. If your local I encourage you to check them out. For those living further a field, look in your own community, their may already be a similar program in place. And if not, you can always help start one.

Myself, I go out on the weekends and shop thrift store and bulk book lots to rescue books and donate them. Sometimes I'll find a book I remember reading when I was young and will read it again before passing it on.

I don't rate these books using my normal scale, instead I give most of them three stars. This isn't a Criticism of the book, simply my way of rating them as good for children.

I red Nancy Drew. Nancy and her friend Bess and solved a model mystery. Nancy's friend Cindy (the model), was kidnapped. Who Nancy thinks kidnapped Cindy was: Gayle and her boyfriend Jason, Nancy also considered Cody (Cindy's Boyfriend) for kidnapping Cindy because of jealousy, and Carlo's fired bodyguard Miklos. Carlo was the director of the commercial and he was the one who had asked Nancy to find Cindy. Ann Bowers is Cindy's manager, and Nancy and Bess have been staying at her apartment during this whole mystery. Cindy is in a Commercial and she went missing. Nancy and bess were trying to solve the mystery. Cindy is allergic to nuts. Cindy is in a Commercial her friend wanted. Cindy backed down a commercial and Ann Bowers was mad at Cindy after that.

This book was thrilling to me. Everything bad that happened made me want to keep reading. I really like how Nancy kept on going and didn't stop on every threat that she got. I like how the author wrote this book she made it sound so believing and interesting. I like how she made Gayle the jealous friend who wanted Cindy's role and played a joke on her by putting nuts in her cereal, when Cindy is allergic to nuts. I liked how Carolyn Keene made some of the side characters seem like the bad guy, and have Nancy suspect them. This story kept on building on and on some books I don't like that but on mysteries it is awesome because it just keeps getting more and more thrilling. This quote is from the chapter :Fire, "Puzzled, Nancy slipped out of her quilted satin jacket and held it up at arm's length. Then she caught her breath. A jagged slit ran length of her jacket, from the collar to the waist. It looked as if someone had gone at it with a razor -a deadly sharp one"

I don't think that I can really relate to the characters in the book. They don't want to let everybody down. They want to prove to everyone that they can do more than one thing. People have gone missing before and people go to look for them. People also run away sometimes. A lot of the time other people are jealous of another person. .
