Francisco Okecki says

Highly Recommended

Good for all fishing levels, specially for beginners. The book is Very complete. All material subjects are covered. I highly recommend it.

---

Phillip says

This is my home library go-to standard reference work. I love the large illustrations and great photography. Rosenbauer is a leader in his field and Orvis makes great equipment.

Thomas says

Great overall intro to fly fishing with all the basic info you need to understand about gear, reading a river, basic concepts of presentation. Great photos and written in an approachable style. Oriented primarily to those planning on fishing for various trout species.

Tawn Gorbutt says

I've read several books of this kind. This is the best I've found. The basics are clearly explained. Some attention is given to more advanced topics as well. Most importantly, the information given is correct and believable.

Rick Healy says*Excellent book

This is a great book for the experienced fly fisher who wants to learn more and a great review. It is an excellent source for the beginner.

---

Dustin says

This guy really knows fly-fishin'.
