K. Rozier says

Sister Trimm wakes us up to our true potential and the authority we've been given. She outlines and highlights scripture that directs us to command our destiny. An inspiring and important wake-up call!

Tanya says

This is the best book I've ever read about this topic. It profoundly, yet simply explains why what we say has so much importance. I really needed this message because I can be so flippant with words I speak even though I've known the Bible to say "Life & death lie in the power of the tongue". This also was only $2.99 on nook! The best $2.99 I've ever spent. I highly recommend this if you want to learn what the Bible says about the words you speak over your life & how they may be sabotaging you're efforts for a better life.

Excellent Book

Excellent book one to keep in my prayer arsenal of weapons to fight and do battle with the enemy in my prayer war room. I recommend this book to everyone especially if you have the zeal to pray or intercede on behalf of other's. There was nothing i didn't like about the book. This book could be used in a class to teach people how to pray and speak in humility but in the God given authority we possess because of what Christ did. I will use this book from now on, I will share with my family and friends even my ministry. This is an excellent book.

Rochelle says

This is an easy read with incredible depth and profound insight. If you've ever wondered why life has or is the way it is then this is the book for you! Life doesn't just happen to us our thoughts, motives and intentions and ultimately what we speak affect not just our present but future. I've learned the power my thoughts have and how to harness them so that I can clearly and accurately speak out the life I want to live. This author is very passionate about maximizing potential and fulfilling destiny so if that is your desire then this is a must read!

Nora says

Great life changing book. Brilliant learning's on Proactive praying.

Sarah Jones says

I enjoyed this book so much I only put it down once, before completing it. It help me to understand how to take control of my mind and my mouth to fulfill God's plan for my personal life.

Naomi says

Another great little nugget of goodness to help you take our God given authority on earth. We use our thoughts and our words, in line with the Word of God, to command our day to align with the inheritance we have in Him.

Not a 'read once and allow to collect dust' book. The principles of this book must become daily practice.

Valisha McFarlane says

This book is essential for your Kingdom living toolkit. It is a powerful instruction manual for launching into a strategic prayer and intercession approach for your life. It offers great revelation concerning speaking God's word into the atmosphere.

Concise and compact, Ms. Trimm presents the necessary scriptures and information needed to walk in your purpose by decreeing and declaring the word of God into the atmosphere. It is a clarion call to get your mouth, mind and heart in complete alignment with the word of God. "Let their be light" in your life! Walk in victory.

If you read this book, your mind will change and you will begin to command your morning. One of the best books I have read on prayer. I reread and pray the prayers often!

Rachel says

My mom recommended this book to me and i finally picked it up to read and was blown away! Cindy hits the nail on the head and gave me enlightenment on taking control of my life and commanding it each day. Its an easy read, but an essential read for every christian out there. I have gotten so excited about commanding my day and calling out my blessings in my life!

Angie Foster says

It was a great book. A great reminder of how our words carry power. What you think of yourself is what you become. What you think will eventually come out of your mouth, at that point you have released it into the atmosphere. We have the power to choose what kind of day you are going to have. This is a great book to have in your library.

Tami Brown says

I absolutely love this book. It is empowering and filled with inspirational and anointed words. I literally pull this book out every single morning and speak the many powerful affirmations infused with God's promise into my day.

Drd Psyd says

Great Book!

In this book, Dr. Trimm fully explains all we need to do, to Command our Morning! She even give some powerful Declarations at end, to help get started with, "Commanding Your Morning!" Definitely would recommend this book!

Les Bilesky says

Not just a book, more like a human manual for real living. Easy reading yet provides perfectly clear and life changing solutions with God.

Alex Poulos says

A great friend recommended this book to me after a break-up and several other life "adventures" occurred in my life. I must have about 50 pages of this book dogeared so I can refer back to them. Many points mentioned by the author can be attributed to the law of attraction which is a simple process in theory but can be so difficult to live out in daily life!

I particularly like the information stating conscious of what is going on in our minds. Also, lining up our minds with our words. All in all, our thoughts and words signify the order of our lives. How true a concept! Finally, we need to be careful not to embrace the counsel of debilitating spirits such as fear, doubt, and unbelief. Cindy Trimm offers everyday reinforcements to command our morning through positive sayings and thoughts. Excellent book!
