The Night Before Christmas: Now With Cats M. Haas

'Twas the night before Christmas, and all through the house... Oh, a creature was stirring! He was after a mouse.  Clement Clark Moore's classic gets a "Modern Family"-meets-internet-cats revision with Haas' charmingly humorous text and illustrations.

The story is so fun and charming, and I love the gorgeous art and vibrant colors. It's a big hit in the children's library where I donated it to bring laughs, beauty and joy to the kids this Christmas. The art transports kids of all ages to that special place in the heart where Christmas classic memories are stored and made.

I thought this book was adorable!! We have four cats and I had to laugh because my little angels get into so much mischief around Christmas time and I threaten them that Santa won't be bringing them anything. This book is a must have for anyone who loves cats!! I can't wait to share it with my nephew tonight! Thank-You so much for the book - I will treasure it always!!!

I received the book for free through Goodreads First Reads.
