This book talks about how Madison Finn checks out a new website called Off The Wall! Madison only visited once and liked it! But all of the sudden someone is pretending to be Madison writes insults of Madison's friends! When it gets worst she loses all of her friends then Madison writes something horrible which caused a lot of damage on the website! I learned how it is important to see what you write on the computer before posting it on public!

Leilani says

Madison finds a new web site that is awesome and then she figures out it is sooo not great. some one makes an account that looks like madisons user name and says MEAN things about her friends...where every one can see and it embarresed her friends. wich made them mad at her. she figures out who it was....and went on that account and started type a mean message bak...then deletes it..but then it says POSTED!! thats not a good thing she doesent wanna be mean!!!
