Using their cache of already published easy-to-read books, Puffin launched their Easy-to-Read program. Favorite stories by such beloved authors as James Marshall, Jean Van Leeuwen, and Harriet Ziefert are certain to attract readers to this series. Though the quality of stories in this series is uneven, some of them are superb. Like most other beginning-to-read series, Puffin Easy-to-Read is divided into reading levels. Level 1 uses sentences with clear and simple words and illustrations that help the reader understand the story line. Level 2 is the springboard for emerging readers: the stories use longer sentences, yet maintain a vocabulary easy enough for the child to feel comfortable on his or her own. Level 3 offers more challenging sentences and longer stories. Kindergarten - Grade 3.

Jenny Wright says

A darling book in the Oliver Pig series with the first child going off to school and overcoming the first day of school jitters.

Cana says

Mommy says: Grammy told me Cana would like these books, and she was right. Thanks Grammy!

Sarah says

Seemed a little mixed up to have a level three reader about the first day of kindergarten, which most kids on level three would consider babies.

Katie Fitzgerald says

No review.

Erica Eyestone says

I think this is a good beginning book. Good message about overcoming doubts about how school might be and making friends.
