Rifle , Roti , Aorat (Rifles, Bread ,Women)

25th March 1971 , is the night where humanity witnessed one of the darkest sides of human history, a night to be reckoned with infamy, a cold blooded genocide to uproot the identity of our nation , Bangladesh . The novel started with the darkest night of 25th March through the narrative of a character Sudipto Shahin and there on seeing the burning face of a nation in later months.The novel ended up expressing the hope of liberty as the writer could sense it even in June.

It was an unjust war. A war against humanity by those hyenas who killed people with unbelievable brutality. The writer himself was not involved with the resistance movement , but his whole existence was Yearning for vengeance. He could sense that the glorious moment was itching closer. He had been yearning for that day, but little did he know that he'd be the one to pay the debt of liberty.
