Suddenly there are creatures from the ancient past in Spooksville. Huge meat-eating lizards attacking people in their cars. Flying reptiles swooping down and lifting kids away. But where have these dinosaurs come from? Adam and his friends discover that a huge doorway has been created between present-day Spooksville and sixty million years ago. It is through this doorway that the dinosaurs are attacking. But who created this doorway?

How can it be closed before all of Spooksville is destroyed?

Erin says

This was another great Spooksville. I believe that it was a lot easier to read than some others might have been because, unlike the others, it did not rely so much on fictional creatures. Instead, it features dinosaurs that have managed to find their way into Spooksville via a time warp. Of course, Adam, Sally, Watch, Cindy, and special guest star Bryant manage to save the day and everything returns to normal (or as normal as Spooksville can manage).

From the Spooksville series (not all about dinosaurs).
